Part 2: Acknowledgement of TRL Terms and Conditions

A: Code of Conduct

All registered players (and the parents/guardians of these players) are bound by this code of conduct. A player, whether on or off the field (and all parents) must refrain from: -

1. Continual breaches of the rules;
2. Swearing, foul, abusive or derogatory language which includes comments or actions;
3. Verbal abuse including language, comments or words that threatens or denigrates a player, referee or spectator on the basis of his/her religion, sexual orientation, disability, race, colour, national or ethnic origin;
4. Talking back to or arguing with a referee;
5. Dissent or disapproval towards a referee following a decision by the referee;
6. Intentional physical contact not permitted by the rules or fighting with a player, referee, spectator or TRL representative;
7. Attacking the head of an opponent or tripping an opponent;
8. Entering the field under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
9. Excessively hard touches or overly aggressive game play;

10. Any action deemed, in the ultimate discretion of the referee or competition manager, to bring the game into disrepute or any other action which is not in the spirit of the game. Should a player, parent (or team) breach the Code of Conduct above, TRL Australia may take whatever action necessary including but not limited to: suspension of individuals and teams; individual bans or team bans; escalating the matter to Police or appropriate law enforcement bodies.

Should a team be banned or removed from the competition on account of a breach of the Code of Conduct, all monies paid will be forfeited unless TRL Australia agrees to refund a portion of the season's fee.

I acknowledge that: (a) in the conduct of the TRL competition or other activity, some physical contact will occur between my child and other individuals involved in the competition; and (b) I consent to that contact being made; and (c) I will not hold TRL Australia or any other TRL Representative responsible for any injury or illness my child may suffer in respect of that contact.

B: Role of the Parent/Guardian

1. Parents/guardians are responsible for their players and associated spectators' conduct both on and off the field.
2. The parent/guardian must make sure they have registered their child.
3. All parents/guardians must assist TRL Australia representatives in identifying players that have breached the Code of Conduct.
4. To play finals or wildcard fixtures, a player must be registered on or before week 8 fixtures begin. Any player that registers after week 8 cannot play in weeks 9 and 10.

C: Disclaimer & Acknowledgements

In consideration of TRL Australia allowing my child, once they are a registered player, to participate in the TRL Australia competition and events run by TRL Australia, I agree to release TRL Australia from all liability for any claim or demand or damage or personal injury or illness sustained by my child (a) arising from or in respect of my participation in any game or other activity (TRL related or otherwise) arranged by or on behalf of TRL Australia, whether or not the injury is caused by TRL Australia or any other person; and (b) whether or not the damage, personal injury or illness arises from the negligence or breach of any statutory duty of TRL Australia or any other individual.

I, {insert your name}

, have read and agreed to the above terms and conditions.
